THEME

With a title like the Milestone, what could be more suitable for a theme than a journey down life's road? Just as God's Word is a light to the path of a Christian in his journey through life, we hope that this book will serve to brighten your days for years to come as you travel through its pages.

"We thank God for sending these students our way, to recognize our awesome responsibility before Him to equip them for His work around the world. Over the years, I've come to realize more and more that where strides are to be made in the Lord's work, they are never made without intense opposition. We are in a battle. I trust that together, in years to come, we shall look back at how God . . . used each of us at this time to provide an extraordinary opportunity to advance His work."

In Honor of . . .

We dedicate the 1990 Milestone our Officer of the Day — wise disciplinarian, committed teacher, talented dean, loving husband and father, praying friend. In the daily skirmishes for truth and right, our officer-dean leads us "with the cross of Jesus going before." When he encourages us in chapel to "blend with ours your voices in the triumph song," we sing! And with his admonishments, his advice in his direction, he assures us that "Christ's own promises cannot fail." Gratefully we dedicate this book to Dean Neil Holliker, Christian Soldier.

Mrs. Neil Holliker, Karin and Lise Holliker

Dean Holliker and his secretary, Mrs. Irene Edgar

"Uh-one, uh-two, uh-three . . ."

CHAPEL

Since chapel is such an important part of each school day, we thought we would share a few memories from this past year with you . . .

"I've got peace like a river!"

Dr. Dick Winchell consults with Drs. Spinella and Hillis.

Chin Ju and Kyong Won Kim minister in song.

"These trees of the field shall clap their hands!"

MISSIONS

LIGHTING A DARKENED WORLD

Ben and Jean identify with an unreached people group.

Dr. Philip Steyne of Columbia Bible College and Seminary

Over 30 missionary representatives challenged the WBC family to reach out to a spiritually darkened world by sharing their ministry with us. The theme, suggested by Dr. Richard Halverson in a chapel message last year, was our challenge. "If we are the light, why is the world so dark?" Dr. Philip Steyne, Director of Missions at Columbia Biblical Seminary and Graduate School, was the keynote speaker and through his messages posed to us the question, "Who is our God?" His answer, our God is unlike any other god. He is the only God who offers grace, He is the God of the impossible, and He is the only God of hope and love. Our God has a purpose and He uses us to accomplish it. As He shared the "light" with us — let's pass it on to the rest of the world!

This year's conference encouraged students to pray together and investigate ways and places of service. A special thanks goes to all those who spent many hours helping make January 31-February 2, 1990, an inspiring missions conference.

"I thinks I smells a foreigner!"

This year, the WBC Players became a part of a 52-year-old phenomena — "The Mousetrap" by Agatha Christie. This play is the longest running play in London theaters. The Junior Class gave us Yanks the opportunity to participate in the mystery of "The Mousetrap" this March 2 and 3.

A talented cast (pictured right) wove the Christie magic of mystery and mayhem. Once again our great set was designed by Marty Orcurto while Jon Evans and Karen Cateau did sound and lights. Kathy McKinney and Jodi Parks were on Make-up and Miss Doerfler produced, making it happen just right, while Mrs. Anthony directed. Thanks to all for two great evenings of drama!

The 1990 Junior Class set their objective from day one to make this year's Senior Honors Banquet the best ever. Many of them suffered through bitter cold nights trying to sell Christmas trees so that we Seniors could have an enjoyable night. On behalf of all the 1990 graduates I would like to thank the Junior Class for a first-rate evening. The food was delicious, and the entertainment was superb. The message was thought-provoking and the atmosphere was delightful. I can say for all of us that we were truly honored.

Athletic Banquet

A Time for Remembering . . .

Dr. Peggy Kellers

Jonny Evans, "Guitar Coach?"

Are we sitting down on the job, guys?

The annual athletic awards banquet was held on Saturday, May 12, in the college dining hall and featured Dr. Peggy Kellers as the special speaker. Kellers, who is the director of the National Association of Girls and Women in Sport, challenged the gathering to eliminate the negative attitudes which hinder from becoming "champions" in the game of life as well as on the athletic field. She concluded her talk by encouraging a commitment to excellence, as well as commitment to develop a faith which overcomes all obstacles.

Sixty athletic letters and pins were awarded, in addition to special honorees in each of the college's six inter-collegiate sports. All-conference selections were announced, with nine Cougars picking up honors. A special award was presented to senior Matt Fletcher for becoming only the fifth basketball player in history to score more than 1000 points in his career. Seniors Rick Hancock and Joy Moyer were presented the Cougar Club's Student-Athlete-of-the-Year plaque. These awards are given annually to those graduating athletes who set an example of excellence in their spiritual lives, in the classroom and in the athletic field. Matt Helbling's "cheer" honoring the WBC cheerleaders was one of the evening's highlights . . . long live the "funky chicken!"

Boy! Did the cheerleading squad get a surprise?!

Soccer, 1989!

The 1989 men's soccer team was significant of the stabilizing trend of WBC's athletic department. With only eight players returning from last season, the team sported a strong, young team which contended well against the more experienced and disciplined teams in the conference. Though they won only one game in the conference, the team performed impressively against the more powerful schools and contended for a playoff spot down to the last game of the season. First-year head coach Charles Evans said that the soccer program is looking forward to a more disciplined, seasoned team in 1990, and that recruitment prospects are promising. Overall, the program has great potential to be a real power in the conference during the next several years.

VOLLEYBALL!

Even though this year's record was challenging overall, the volleyball team worked hard. Seniors Joy Moyer and Cindy Dick, along with Junior Shelly Turner proved to be strong leaders during many games up against tough competition. Despite having to use "fill-ins" from time to time because of injury, the Lady Cougars placed fourth in the league, making the playoffs, and show promise for upcoming years.

Awards this year: Joy Moyer — All-Conference Team, MVP; Michelle Grayson — Most Improved Player; Shelly Turner -- Coach's Award.

UNITED WE CONQUER

MEN'S BASKETBALL'S STRONGEST SHOW IN YEARS!

One of our team captains signed a team picture and wrote, "A new beginning!" He accurately summarized our '89-'90 basketball season. The Cougars experienced a dramatic turnaround over last year by finishing third in the conference and by being a strong contender for a shot at the finals. We praise God for His work in our lives during the season. All of us matured as athletes and as Christians. May God richly bless Mark, Bill and Matt as they graduate. They will be greatly missed! It was a pleasure serving with you guys in your senior year.

A TEAM TO BE PROUD OF!

The 1990 Cougars baseball team enjoyed the most successful season in school history, winning 18 games and losing 11. Seniors Rick Hancock and David Richardson, junior Jon Evans and sophomore Jeff Gonzalez were selected to the all-conference team, with Hancock being named as the league's most valuable player. Gonzalez also won all-district honors for his outstanding play in the regional tournament. Highlights of the year included Richardson's no-hitter over Pasco-Hernando in the finale of the Florida trip. Freshman Jim Avery homered twice to provide a victory over Nyack. Gonzalez' 47 stolen bases set a new school record, as did Hancock's 28 runs batted in. Individual team awards went to Hancock and Gonzalez (co-MVPs), Avery (Rookie of the Year) and Marty Orcurto (Coaches' Award). The 18-11 record followed a 13-11 mark the previous season, signalling that WBC baseball is back!

Global Impact Setting our eyes on the Goal . . .

Global Impact, WBC's student missions group, set a goal to raise $5500 within the student body this year from offerings. Only about $3800 was raised, but the group was still able to meet its objectives. Money was sent to an alumnus in India for a movie projector as well as to Marjorie Qiao from China so she could attend our school. Money was also used for sending the 1990-91 Global Impact officers to a missions workshop and given to help support WBC's student Summer Missionaries. One of the ways students reached out to others was by sending Christmas boxes to missionaries. The missions conference was also a major activity that got many students involved and was considered by many to be a great success and the highlight of the year. Things are happening in Global Impact and it is exciting to see what God is going to do in the semesters to come.

The WBC Choir sang with renewed vigor this year under the direction of Dr. Dale Voelker as he started his first year as Chair of the Music Department. It was exciting to see students using their musical talents to the glory of God while they continued to learn and grow as both Christians and musicians. The choir performed for the annual Christmas banquet in December and then began preparing for the spring Choir Tour which took them from Hagerstown, MD to Niagara Falls, NY and back. Accompanied by Dr. Fletcher, the Choir and Chamber Singers were able to minister to churches and schools as well as encourage others to study at WBC. The school year ended with a benefit concert for the Music Department during which the choir was privileged to be accompanied by some professional musicians from the D.C. area. The Lord continues to show His goodness to the choir and the school, and Dr. Voelker is looking forward to even more years ahead.

Farewell, Dr. Kim

On May 10, students, faculty, and staff gathered in the Wagner Center to bid farewell to a faithful professor and friend, Dr. Sang-Bok David Kim. After thirteen years of ministry at Washington Bible College, Dr. Kim and his wife are moving to Seoul, Korea, where after a year of teaching at the Asian Center for Theological Studies and Missions (ACTS), he will assume its presidency. He will also be senior pastor of the Hallelujah Christian Church and, as well, be involved with the Korean Center for Christian Missions. But take heart alumni and future students! Dr. Kim has requested that he be able to continue as an adjunct professor at WBC, teaching summer and intersemester courses. God bless you, Dr. Kim. Maranatha!

Hallelujah!

Admittedly, this has been one of the most difficult and challenging years of my life. The Lord has stretched me far beyond my self-seen potential and caused me to reset my sights on even higher goals for His glory. I pray the Lord's blessing and protection over those who graduate this year, continuing on in the work of the Lord. I pray for all of us who are struggling to find God's place for us in His perfect will. It is my hope that this book brings you years of joy, encouragement, and strength for the struggle.

Praise God in Christ,

*Chris Calderwood

To write from the heart, as Chris has, shows you what we as the Milestone staff have grown to be: stronger Christians because of "fiery trials." I would like to quote my friend, Anna McCall Walker, to give you a humorous glimpse into what these trials tailed . . .

". . . it seemed we stepped off one train, forgot our luggage, had to get back on and off several times for it, tiptoed across the is only to fall in the mud and just barely managed to make the next train with the conductor pulling us on by our shirt tails. I certain that we were attacked twice by Indians and held up once by Jesse James. And it was one slow train, too. No matter how ch coal we'd shovel down the furnace it would just grin. An old miner and his burro challenged us to a race. Guess who n???" Would you believe Anna wrote this when she was a yearbook editor?! Smile.

Anyway, enough of tall tales, trials and tribulations. The Lord has been so good to provide for our needs. Many times we tired to have things go our way and He allowed us to go through the valley for a bit so we would turn to Him. We are so grateful the Lord for His miraculous provisions.

A special thank you goes to our core staff, also known as "my three sons," Chris, Cary and Matt. The Lord knows I never would ve made it without you! Thanks goes to Marco Ciavolino of Search Ministries as well for allowing us to use the pictures he had en for the school in our yearbook. Thanks also to Miss Hall, Mrs. Anthony, Mr. Holliker and Mr. Brown for their help and vice. Finally, thanks to all those who helped the Milestone in any way, and thank you, WBC students, for being the people that ke up the school. Like the Church, a school is not merely the building. Instead, it is the students that make a school what it is. May God richly bless each one of you as you seek to live your lives honestly before Him.
